Office Action Summary

DETAILED ACTION

Double Patenting

1. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

2. Claims 29-31 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of double patenting over claims 1-5 of U. S. Patent No. 5,866,856 since the claims, if allowed, would improperly extend the "right to exclude" already granted in the patent.

The subject matter claimed in the instant application is fully disclosed in the patent and is covered by the patent since the patent and the application are claiming common subject matter, as follows: A transmitter device for use with a system for digitizing operative strokes of a handheld drawing implement, the drawing implement having a body and an operative tip.

Furthermore, there is no apparent reason why applicant was prevented from presenting claims corresponding to those of the instant application during prosecution of the application which matured into a patent. See In re Schneller, 397 F.2d 350, 158 USPQ 210 (CCPA 1968).

See also MEP. § 804.

Drawings

3. This application has been filed with informal drawings which are acceptable for examination purposes only. Formal drawings will be required when the application is allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. Claims 29-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Murphy (4,667,182).

Regarding Claim 29, Murphy teaches a transmitter device (1 fig.8) for use with a system for digitizing operative strokes of a drawing implement, the drawing implement having a body and an operative tip, the transmitter device comprising a housing with an aperture, the housing being configured for receiving a portion of the body of the drawing implement with its operative tip extending through the aperture (Figs. 1-5; col.3, line 36-63, col.5, lines 14-58); a normally closed switch deployed so as to be opened by relative movement between the drawing implement and the housing resulting from the pressure applied to the operative tip (Figs. 1-5; col.3, line 36-63, col.5, lines 14-58); and a primary spring (figs.1,5) deployed to bias the drawing implement to a forward position in which the switch is closed (Summary; Figs. 1-5; col.3, lines 36-63, col.5, lines 14-58).

Regarding Claim 30-31, Murphy teaches that the transmitter comprises a secondary spring deployed to act upon the drawing implement in a rearward direction so as to suspend the drawing implement within the housing (Summary; Figs. 1-5; col.3, lines 36-63, col.5, lines 14-58).

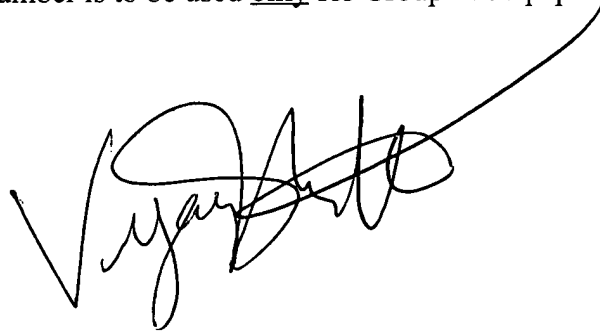

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
